Game To-Day.

Brownies vs. Manchester.

What the grand stand thinks Umpire Bender don't know about umpiring the game would fill a big book. They so expressed themselves at the game yesterday, when he officiated in the contest between the Brownies and the Manchester Colts. He was apparently off on balls and strikes, and in two instances exhibited cases of bad judgment, one in calling Swift's fair ball foul, and in calling McEvoy safe at plate when the grand stand saw he was out. At any rate the game was a good one, and closed with one of the old-time heart disease finishes. The first game was not up to the standard, and indicated that the Richmond team is still out of its class, despite the victory over Manchester on Saturday.

The crowd yesterday filled the grand stand and the bleachers and extended out to the left field. The games were enjoyed, and the crowd felt well repaid for their attendance. The Colts and the Brownies will play again this afternoon at 5 o'clock, and on Saturday the Brownies will test the strength of Richmond, and Manchester and Barton Heights will get together. The first game yesterday started out all right, and it was not until the fifth inning that the Northsiders took things in their hands and clinched a victory. There were no brilliant plays, and the story is best told in detail:

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

School Commencement at the Central Methodist Church.

LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT.

Former Councilman of City to Test Validity of Richmond Ordinance.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch.

The commencement exercises of the Manchester public schools in Central Methodist Church last night were witnessed by more than a thousand citizens of the city and were highly enjoyed. The programme was a delightful one and reflected great credit upon the superintendent, principals and teachers of the schools.

Long before the hour for the exercises the church was crowded with those who had been invited to attend, to the tickets of admission. The fair graduates, gowned in snowy white, arrived early and were given seats on the platform. There were several young ladies who received diplomas. No young men were in the graduating class.

The church was artistically decorated for the occasion, and not a seat was left when the programme was reached. On the platform were the members of the school board, prominent educators from Richmond and the State and several of the ministers of the city.

The invocation was said by Rev. Dr. R. M. Chandler, pastor of the church. "Summer Fancies" was the music. The welcome address was by Roland Bradley, of the High School, "Land of the South," a recitation by Alyce Angel, was exceptionally good and highly appreciated by the audience. Miss Ellen Farrell read "Song of the Mystic," which was very well received. Miss Helen L. Welsiger delivered an essay on "Side by Side." Miss Ethel McGee read "A Handful of Clay," and C. Ashton Blankenship recited "Excuses." Each part was well received, and the programme thus far was heartily appreciated by the large audience.

Dr. oung Speaks.

The address to the pupils was delivered by Rev. Dr. Young, of Centenary Methodist Church, Richmond. Mr. J. C. Harwood, of the Colored Normal School, of Richmond, delivered the address to the fair graduates. Miss Mary A. Sampson delivered the valedictory and the class prophecy was read by Miss Exilia W. Fitzgerald, daughter of Principal Fitzgerald, of the schools.

Superintendent D. L. Pulliam delivered a stirring speech at the conclusion of the exercises. He argued for higher education, for better schools, and greater facilities in the future. He urged the pupils to make a lasting impression upon the minds of the young ones who were going out into the world for their education.

Fire On Belle Isle.

The roof of the moulding department of Belle Isle was partially destroyed by fire last night about 10:30 o'clock. The fire was supposed to have been left burning by the day force and gradually ate their way to the roof. The firefighters of the Island were called out and within fifteen minutes after the blaze was discovered the fire was under control. Shortly thereafter it was extinguished with a loss of perhaps one hundred dollars.

Have the Fire Hall.

The brass band of the city has petitioned the fire commissioners for the use of the third of the fire hall for practicing. At present the rooms on the third story are used only for rubber stamping. It is understood that the request of the band boys will be granted. The fire commissioners will, in all probability, fail to act upon the question, but will leave it to the Building and Land Committee for the consideration of the members of that committee. The band is composed of twenty-two young men of the city.

Personals and Briefs.

No quorum of the fire commissioners could be gotten last night and the meeting was indefinitely postponed. Mr. Hunter Ward, who was injured at the Southern Warehouse some time ago, will be taken to the hospital this week for treatment.

Commonwealth's Attorney C. L. Page is improving at the Virginia Hospital.

Mrs. M. W. Patram, of No. 13 East Fifteenth Street, mother of Alderman R. L. Patram, is slowly recovering from a severe illness.

Mr. Walter M. Jones, of Swansboro, who has been ill for some time, is reported to be somewhat better.

Mr. W. L. Welch, of Tenth and Maury

Spring Brings That "Don't Care" Feeling

Do you often feel these spring days that you "don't care"—are just "all tired out" and have no ambition? That's when your nerves need bracing up. That's just when you need Paine's Celery Compound. Try just one bottle and feel the exultant thrill of the abundant new nerve force that Paine's Celery Compound will give you.

No medicine, no prescription, no treatment has ever been discovered that has the marvelous, positive and direct power of cure that Paine's Celery Compound has for nervous results or nervous diseases. It has stood the test of 18 years' time. Its formula has been sent to every registered physician in the United States, it is constantly prescribed by them. They know that it is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians known in the annals of American medicine—Prof. E. E. Phelps, of Dartmouth University.

All Worn Out and Run Down

"We have used Paine's Celery Compound in our family for a number of years and a few months ago, when I felt worn out and run down that I thought I would have to give up my work and take a vacation earlier, mother suggested that I try a couple of bottles of Celery Compound. A few doses made me feel quite
